

Summary Sheet: BASIC EDUCATION LAWS AMENDMENT ACT - COMMENT

Att: Adv Rudman at Rudman.D@dbe.gov.za

Procedural

I believe the process is seriously flawed for the following reasons:

Reasons	Y/N
Comment period falls during exams
Limited time to comment: I have not had enough time to study the Bill, think through its legality and impact on my family.

Substantive

Section of BELA	Object Y/N
51(1)&(2)
51(2)(d)(iii)& (iv) :
51(2)(c)
51(6)

In summary:

(If you do not agree with any of the statements below draw a line through them i.e. cross them out.)

- Impractical
The sections pertaining to home education are in general impractical and will never work.
- Will not be complied with
This Bill will be rejected by the vast majority of homeschoolers and they will not comply with it.
- Home Education should be removed
The sections dealing with home education should be removed from the Bill.
- Start a proper consultation process.
The DBE should begin an inclusive and transparent consultation process with home educators.
- Additions to my submission.
Due to the request for an extension being declined I have limited my submission to a few key issues. I would like to reserve my right to made additions to this submission until the process is completed.
